The Dallas Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section will select three interns from among qualifying SMU Dedman School of Law and Texas Wesleyan School of Law applicants for the Summer of 2012. Each intern will receive $3500 and will be placed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in Dallas, with the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) in Fort Worth, or with the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) in Dallas. Application for the internships is open to students from the class of 2013 and 2E students who have either taken or are currently enrolled in one or more of the following courses: Employment Law, Employee Benefits and ERISA Legislation, Labor Law, and/or Employment Discrimination. Students who have not taken one of the listed courses but have relevant business experience in human resources or labor relations may also apply for internships.

Applications will be considered by the selection committee based upon an applicant’s competency, character and commitment to labor/employment law.

Important Dates

Application deadline is 5:00 p.m., Monday, March 12, 2012.

See Symplicity Posting No. 6136 for application details.

Interviews:
Selected applicants will be interviewed by representatives from the Dallas Bar Association, the EEOC, the NLRB, and the DOL.
