

ALUMNI ATTORNEYS IN TRANSITION - DALLAS/FORT WORTH RESOURCES

The following organizations offer support, information, and networking opportunities to job seekers in the Dallas/Fort Worth area:

1) Career Transition Workshop

This free 12-week recurring series provides substantive sessions geared to professionals and executive job seekers on Tuesday evenings in the Fellowship Hall of Park Cities Baptist Church (3933 Northwest Parkway – on Northwest Highway near Preston Road). The sessions on resumes and interviewing are particularly helpful. An optional notebook offers outlines, sample resumes, and a list of alumni for networking purposes. You can begin attending at any time in the series. See <http://www.pcbc.org/ctw>.

2) Career Connection

This organization offers a searchable job bank, general meetings, and a career management group (“CMG”) for legal professionals for a modest monthly membership fee. General meetings and a resource center are located at Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church at Preston and Walnut Hill in Dallas. Their website posts that they hold weekly meetings on Tuesdays from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. See www.careerconnection.org or call 214-739-7153.

3) Jewish Family Service

This organization hosts speakers on career-related topics like working with recruiters and using Linked-In. These free presentations are held monthly on Tuesday evenings at 5402 Arapaho Road in Dallas. See www.jfsdallas.org and their Career and Employment Services Website at <http://www.jfsdallas.org/component/content/article?id=23> or call 972-980-2474.

4) Resume Consultant

Kate Shahan is a resume consultant. She has many years of experience in resume writing, for resume consulting services, and also in corporate communications. She charges $90 for a complete resume, but if you have something that really just requires tweaking, she will work on an hourly basis at $30/hour. 214-499-4289 katie\_shahan@yahoo.com
